Complaints

We always strive to provide our customers with good and advice and treatment. However, we cannot completely avoid that in some cases we disagree with the customer about what the customer is entitled to or expect. In such cases, we encourage our clients to open up dialogue to quickly clarify any misunderstandings.

If, after dialogue with us, you still do not feel that you are getting what is agreed or what you are entitled to, you can complain to our complaints officer either in a letter att: Codans klageansvarlige or per e-mail klageansvarlig@codan.dk.

Quote and counseling

When you receive a quote or take out an insurance, we require various details and information – for example information about previous claims in another insurance company. Your insurance or offer is based on this information.

If incorrect information is given it may affect your coverage and lead to non-coverage.

If you find any errors in the information you have provided this must be reported immediately. .

Please note that insurance is governed by Danish law – however, where English Institute Cargo Clauses apply, interpretation of these will be according to English law and legal usage.

Commission

Scan Global Logistics A/S (freight forwarder) receives commission from Codan Forsikring A/S in connection with the provision of the Marine Cargo Insurance.

Our (freight forwarder) employees do not receive commission for the sale of insurance.
